

Table 1: List of DRS Elements Required in South Carolina for Adults

Admission record	History and physical and demographic information
Provisional or working diagnosis	Pre-operative diagnosis
Plan of care	Complete surgical record
Report of anesthesia	Nurses' notes
Progress notes	Gross pathological findings
Vital signs and other measurements	Medication administration record
Results of diagnostic tests or special examinations	Autopsy findings, if applicable (unless is referred to coroner)
Consent forms	Final diagnosis and discharge summary and date and time of discharge summary
Orders for medication and treatment	Follow-up care
Transfer records	Final bills
Amendments requested by patients or their delegates	